

Asel Omorova
Marketing consultant

Prior to joining Flexi Communications Asel spent two years working in Moscow. She started her career as a sales manager at “OLENTA TEX”, a trade and manufacturing company. During her time with the company she brought in major accounts and increased sales of finished products. She also took part in planning and holding exhibitions and promotional events for the company.

Her career was continued at “ROST21” trading company, one of the largest importers and distributors of cosmetics and household cleaning products in Russia. During her time with the company Asel successfully managed the cooperation between company headquarters and its regional offices. She also managed the internet portal development project.

Asel graduated with honors from Bishkek Humanities University with a degree in Sociology.

In 2007 in Moscow she took a professional retraining course in Management and Marketing at the State Academy for Investment Professionals.

To me, my profession is...

A way of self-fulfillment

Career highlights

The time spent at “ROST21” group of companies in Moscow taught me to implement large-scale trade projects and allowed me to have hands-on experience with their realization

I chose Flexi Communications

For challenging objectives, the opportunity to grow professionally and the welcoming atmosphere

I am proud of

My ability to find positive aspects in almost any situation

What matters to me

To be appreciated

Apart from work I am interested in

Very many things

I also can

Ski

I want to learn

To ski even better, so that I can get true pleasure from the speed